celpts even for a Saturday. There were celpts even for a Saturday. There were only six car leads on the market two of which were held over from the previous evening. The market was steady to strong as compared with the best time on Friday. The top price yesterday was fairly active and at the close there was fairly active and at the close there was not a hog in the pens unsold. Cuduhy did not seem very auxious for hogs, but there were plenty of buyers for everything offered. Somehow the idea prevails that there will be a fair sinply of hogs on the market next week and present indications are that there will be a demand here for all that comes. The experience of the shippers who went pust this market at the beginning of the deciling inst week was not suitsfactory and others will be less likely to try the experience. Experience has shown that on a decilining market the first buyer is usually of the hogs on the market yesterday was priced by the best buyer.
